

SPORTING NEWS FROM EVERYWHERE

Birdseye View of Reno, Nev., Where Jeffries and Johnson Meet in Historic Heavyweight Battle

TEN TO SEVEN THAT JEFF WINS

Betting Is Not Heavy as Yet, but Is Expected to Liven Up Tomorrow.

RENO, July 2.—"Ten to seven that Jeffries will win; even money that he won't win in twenty rounds," shouted the megaphone booster outside Tom Corbett's poolroom tonight. These figures fairly represent the prevailing odds on the fight, but there was little betting. One heard rumors of this or that sporting celebrity risking large amounts on Jeffries or on Johnson, but usually these rumors were run down and ended in nothing tangible.

Jim Corbett let it be known that he had $5,000 to place on his friend Jeffries, this sum being a pool sent over from San Francisco by Jeffries' admirers. The placing of it was not in evidence around the poolroom, where a heterogeneous crowd loafed and slept in the chairs. Sometimes the chair warmers sat up and took notice when some one bought a few pools in the mutuels, but taken generally, the betting was exceedingly tame. The mutual board was opened today, and this form of betting gave a good indication of the way the bettor regards the match as a gambling proposition. Out of 122 tickets sold, 35 were taken on Johnson and 88 on Jeffries. Eighteen of them favored Jeff to win in from one to five rounds, but two believing Johnson had a chance in the first five rounds. Fifteen thought Jeffries would end the fight in from six to nine rounds and two picked Johnson, while from the tenth to the thirteenth Jeffries' admirers numbered eighteen to Johnson's three.

The longer the fight the better Johnson's chance to win is the way the mutuels figure it. For instance, from 19 to 24 rounds Jeffries' tickets numbered 14 and Johnson's 11, and 25 and over totaled 11 for Jeff and 12 for Johnson.

The first special train from the east, carrying a Chicago delegation, came in during the afternoon, and there was a little flurry to see if the sporting men from Johnson's home town would make their presence felt in the betting. There was much Johnson talk, but no big money came out to back it up.

Ten to seven is regarded as the probable figures until Monday, when the great crowd from San Francisco, Los Angeles and other California cities will arrive on the grounds with plenty of Jeffries money to bet.

The strain of training days has told to some extent upon little Mrs. Jeffries. She spends her time hovering about her husband, watching him and thinking of him all the time, whether he is at work or at play.

"I'd prefer not to say anything about it," said Mrs. Jeffries today when asked for an opinion on the fight. "I'm not interested in prize fighting, but I am interested in my husband's welfare. I believe he will win, of course, but I do hope this will be his last fight."

Among Jeffries' visitors today were automobile loads of negroes. They were piloted out to camp by Sam Langford and came to wish the white man success when he clashes with Johnson.

Don't think that piles can't be cured. Thousands of obstinate cases have been cured by Doan's Ointment 50 cents at any drug store.

PRIZE FIGHT RETURNS AT 2:30 P. M.

The prize fight returns will not come into Ogden until 2:30 p. m., as the time 1:30 p. m. in Reno is exactly 2:30 p. m. in Ogden. The baseball association wants it understood that the announcement, giving the prize fight returns at the Fair grounds, should read 2:30 p. m. instead of 1:30 p. m.

GOING FISHING?

We have the goods. Every known bait and lure made. Our stock is large and fresh—just arrived from the makers. We have IT. What? Everything in SPORTING GOODS.

Rods rewrapped and made like new.

Proudfit Sporting Goods Co.

JEFFRIES GOES FISHING AGAIN

Is Fully Prepared for Battle and Is Now Taking Life Easy and Drying Out.

JEFFRIES' TRAINING CAMP, MOANA SPRINGS, Nev., July 2.—Fishing and card playing were the only things to occupy Jim Jeffries' mind today. From early in the morning until mid-afternoon he sat under the trees beside his cottage playing hearts and rejoicing in the mistakes of his opponents. Many people went out to see him. A line of curious visitors was strung along the fence that shuts the cottage lawn from the main grounds all day. They seemed to think Jeffries would do something, but nobody has earned a guess what it would be. The card game broke up and a stir of expectancy passed over the crowd. Jeffries stepped out to the gate, an auto drew up before the gate and a few minutes later he was bound down the road on an evening fishing trip up the Truckee river.

That was the sum total of the excitement at the camp today. Jeffries was in an extraordinarily good humor all day. Frank Gotch, his former theatrical associate and firm friend, spent the entire day with him. The pair, after several hours playing hearts, were ahead about $2 each. They pooled their interests and invested the fund at the roulette wheel across the road. As a result they went back to the heart game with $14 and Jeffries was highly delighted with the outcome of their frenzied finance.

Many visitors of importance came out to the camp during the day and the challenger greeted them all very pleasantly. He was more interested in the card game than anything else, however, and turned back to it after the big black will impart his information to Corbett, who will in turn talk to Jeffries if he thinks the suggestion wise. Efforts to have John L. Sullivan advise Jeffries met with a cold rebuff on the part of the Jeffries followers, the big bullmaker's friends declaring that John L. knows nothing about the modern game.

Later in the day Johnson went to the city again. He was just joy riding," he told those who questioned him, and his evident enjoyment bore him out. After a few hours of speeding around the city and suburbs, the party returned to camp. George Hartin, the official timekeeper, called and was shown up to Johnson's room.

Harting and Johnson were in conference for half an hour. When the ring official came down stairs he said that he did not care to talk of the conference.

"One thing I might tell you, though," he said, "I measured Johnson's waist while I was up there. He measures just 35 1/2 inches."

"Did the champion express his opinion in regard to your appointment, Mr. Harting?" was asked.

"Yes," he said, "I am sure of a square deal."

"Johnson asked me," continued Harting, "if I would sit in the timer's corner. I told no; that I would sit at the center of the ringside and he laughed and said, 'It makes no difference.'"

A delegation of Salt Lake enthusiasts called on the champion during the day. He received them cordially and assured them that he was ready to make the fight that will be, no matter what the outcome, the most spectacular of his ring career. Some members of the party asked what he thought of the odds.

"Well," said Jack, "you know people will bet, and their sentiment is generally with their money. All I say is give me a square deal and let the best man win, regardless of sentiment."

The champion assured every caller today that his real training work was completed. As a limbering up measure he went eight miles on the road late in the day. He expects to cover the same distance tomorrow.

Johnson put in an idle day. He was motored into town today by Dick Shevlin, the old Yale man, and personally looked over the arena. The distance from the ropes to the outer edge of the platform did not suit him. He said that he wanted a foot more out there. Rickard agreed to do what was wanted in this matter and ar-

dition is beyond question. The boxers, Corbett and Chynski, are bellowing the fact that the big fellow did not heed their urging to work with the gloves. They believe that if he had boxed more he would have been able to save himself punishment in the ring. This, however, they consider a detail. The result will be the same in any event, they declare.

Johnson put in an idle day. He was motored into town today by Dick Shevlin, the old Yale man, and personally looked over the arena. The distance from the ropes to the outer edge of the platform did not suit him. He said that he wanted a foot more out there. Rickard agreed to do what was wanted in this matter and ar-

JOHNSON SAYS HE CAN'T LOSE

Puts in Idle Day—Goes to Arena and Examines Platform and Ropes.

JOHNSON'S TRAINING CAMP, July 2.—With the turmoil of his training over Champion Jack Johnson is just as certain of his ability to defeat Jim Jeffries on July 4 as he was when the idea of such a battle first crossed his mind five or more years ago.

It was learned about the camp today that Johnson believes it will be a short fight if Jeffries takes the aggressive from the start and carries the fighting to the champion. The big negro is supremely confident that he can knock the white man out. If Jeffries fights a cautious battle and stays away, Johnson is just as certain in his own mind of victory. He knows the speed and agility of his opponent, but feels sure of his own ability to follow the white man and to cut him up considerably. But he expects a long fight in this event.

Johnson put in an idle day. He was motored into town today by Dick Shevlin, the old Yale man, and personally looked over the arena. The distance from the ropes to the outer edge of the platform did not suit him. He said that he wanted a foot more out there. Rickard agreed to do what was wanted in this matter and ar-

dition is beyond question. The boxers, Corbett and Chynski, are bellowing the fact that the big fellow did not heed their urging to work with the gloves. They believe that if he had boxed more he would have been able to save himself punishment in the ring. This, however, they consider a detail. The result will be the same in any event, they declare.

Johnson put in an idle day. He was motored into town today by Dick Shevlin, the old Yale man, and personally looked over the arena. The distance from the ropes to the outer edge of the platform did not suit him. He said that he wanted a foot more out there. Rickard agreed to do what was wanted in this matter and ar-

dition is beyond question. The boxers, Corbett and Chynski, are bellowing the fact that the big fellow did not heed their urging to work with the gloves. They believe that if he had boxed more he would have been able to save himself punishment in the ring. This, however, they consider a detail. The result will be the same in any event, they declare.

Johnson put in an idle day. He was motored into town today by Dick Shevlin, the old Yale man, and personally looked over the arena. The distance from the ropes to the outer edge of the platform did not suit him. He said that he wanted a foot more out there. Rickard agreed to do what was wanted in this matter and ar-

dition is beyond question. The boxers, Corbett and Chynski, are bellowing the fact that the big fellow did not heed their urging to work with the gloves. They believe that if he had boxed more he would have been able to save himself punishment in the ring. This, however, they consider a detail. The result will be the same in any event, they declare.

Johnson put in an idle day. He was motored into town today by Dick Shevlin, the old Yale man, and personally looked over the arena. The distance from the ropes to the outer edge of the platform did not suit him. He said that he wanted a foot more out there. Rickard agreed to do what was wanted in this matter and ar-

dition is beyond question. The boxers, Corbett and Chynski, are bellowing the fact that the big fellow did not heed their urging to work with the gloves. They believe that if he had boxed more he would have been able to save himself punishment in the ring. This, however, they consider a detail. The result will be the same in any event, they declare.

Johnson put in an idle day. He was motored into town today by Dick Shevlin, the old Yale man, and personally looked over the arena. The distance from the ropes to the outer edge of the platform did not suit him. He said that he wanted a foot more out there. Rickard agreed to do what was wanted in this matter and ar-

dition is beyond question. The boxers, Corbett and Chynski, are bellowing the fact that the big fellow did not heed their urging to work with the gloves. They believe that if he had boxed more he would have been able to save himself punishment in the ring. This, however, they consider a detail. The result will be the same in any event, they declare.

Johnson put in an idle day. He was motored into town today by Dick Shevlin, the old Yale man, and personally looked over the arena. The distance from the ropes to the outer edge of the platform did not suit him. He said that he wanted a foot more out there. Rickard agreed to do what was wanted in this matter and ar-

dition is beyond question. The boxers, Corbett and Chynski, are bellowing the fact that the big fellow did not heed their urging to work with the gloves. They believe that if he had boxed more he would have been able to save himself punishment in the ring. This, however, they consider a detail. The result will be the same in any event, they declare.

Johnson put in an idle day. He was motored into town today by Dick Shevlin, the old Yale man, and personally looked over the arena. The distance from the ropes to the outer edge of the platform did not suit him. He said that he wanted a foot more out there. Rickard agreed to do what was wanted in this matter and ar-

dition is beyond question. The boxers, Corbett and Chynski, are bellowing the fact that the big fellow did not heed their urging to work with the gloves. They believe that if he had boxed more he would have been able to save himself punishment in the ring. This, however, they consider a detail. The result will be the same in any event, they declare.

Johnson put in an idle day. He was motored into town today by Dick Shevlin, the old Yale man, and personally looked over the arena. The distance from the ropes to the outer edge of the platform did not suit him. He said that he wanted a foot more out there. Rickard agreed to do what was wanted in this matter and ar-

dition is beyond question. The boxers, Corbett and Chynski, are bellowing the fact that the big fellow did not heed their urging to work with the gloves. They believe that if he had boxed more he would have been able to save himself punishment in the ring. This, however, they consider a detail. The result will be the same in any event, they declare.

BASEBALL RESULTS

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Chicago, 3; St. Louis, 2.—Chicago defeated St. Louis 3 to 2 in a featureless game today. Score: R. H. E. Chicago 3 5 1 St. Louis 2 6 6 Batteries—White and Payne; Lake and Stephens.

New York, 1; Philadelphia, 8.—PHILADELPHIA, July 2.—Philadelphia again defeated New York in both games of a double-header today. Pitcher Hughes of New York was put out of the first game for coaching from the bench. The score: R. H. E. New York 3 6 3 Philadelphia 8 8 4 Batteries—Quinn, Hughes, Fisher and Sweeney; Morgan and Thomas.

Washington, 2; Boston, 3.—WASHINGTON, July 2.—Boston defeated Washington today in a hard-fought game 3 to 2. The score: R. H. E. Washington 2 8 1 Boston 3 10 2 Batteries—Groom and Street; Clotte and Carrigan.

Cleveland, 11; Detroit, 4.—CLEVELAND, July 2.—Cleveland defeated Detroit easily today, 11 to 4. The score: R. H. E. Cleveland 11 17 1 Detroit 4 8 3 Batteries—Link, Koestner and Easterly; Mullin and Stange, Schmidt.

Pittsburg, 1; Cincinnati, 5.—PITTSBURG, July 2.—Cincinnati today defeated Pittsburg because of better hitting, 5 to 1. The score: R. H. E. Pittsburg 1 4 3 Cincinnati 5 9 0 Batteries—Powell, Philippi and Gibson; Burns and McLean.

Brooklyn, 6; New York, 3.—NEW YORK, July 2.—After losing five straight games to New York, Brooklyn won today, 6 to 3. Score: R. H. E. Brooklyn 6 9 1 New York 3 10 2 Batteries—Bell and Berens; Ames, Marquard, Dickson and Schlei, Myers.

Philadelphia, 0; Boston, 5.—BOSTON, July 2.—Brown pitched winning ball today and Boston shut out Philadelphia 5 to 0. The score: R. H. E. Philadelphia 0 2 1 Boston 5 8 2 Batteries—Stack and Moran; Brown and Graham.

At Indianapolis—Toledo, 3; Indianapolis, 9. At Louisville—Columbus, 6; Louisville, 1. At Kansas City—Milwaukee, 3; Kansas City, 5. At Minneapolis—Minneapolis, 4; St. Paul, 6.

WESTERN LEAGUE. At Lincoln—Lincoln, 6; Topeka, 1. At Sioux City—Sioux City, 12; Wichita, 5. At St. Joseph—St. Joseph, 8; Des Moines, 1. At Omaha—Omaha-Denver game postponed; rain.

COAST LEAGUE. At Los Angeles—Sacramento, 4; Los Angeles, 2. At San Francisco—San Francisco, 4; Oakland, 0. At Portland—Vernon, 2; Portland, 8.

NORTHWESTERN LEAGUE. At Vancouver—First game: Spokane, 2; Vancouver, 5.

President Taft's private secretary is to be rewarded for his fine literary work by being eminently bound in Morocco.

GLOBE TURF EXCHANGE Direct Wire to Salt Lake Track. 373 24TH STREET.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH AT OGDEN

Something every hour in the day at the Fair Grounds. Under the management of the Ogden Baseball Association and the Fourth of July Committee.

THE MORNING PROGRAM

9:00 A. M.—National salute of 13 guns announcing the opening of the day's festivities. 9:10 A. M.—Ascent of enormous Hirayama Imperial Japanese Day Shells, filling the air with figures of flags, animals, fish, birds, colored floating clouds, human figures, etc. (Great entertainment for the little folks, as these figures fall to the ground and are taken home as souvenirs.)

9:20 A. M.—Foot Race No. 1, boys under 10, 30 yards—Cash Prize, $3.00. Foot Race No. 2, boys under 10, 30 yards—Cash Prize, $3.00. Foot Race No. 3, boys under 10, 30 yards—Cash Prize, $3.00. Foot Race No. 4, boys under 15, 40 yards—Cash Prize, $3.00. Foot Race No. 5, boys under 15, 40 yards—Cash Prize, $3.00. Foot Race No. 6, boys under 15, 40 yards—Cash Prize, $3.00. Foot Race No. 7, girls under 10, 25 yards—Cash Prize, $3.00. Foot Race No. 8, girls under 15, 30 yards—Cash Prize, $3.00. Boys' Shetland Pony Race, one-fourth mile—Prize, $5.00. Girls' Shetland Pony Race, one-fourth mile—Prize, $5.00.

Beginning promptly at 10 o'clock, and lasting until 11, there will be a GRAND AERIAL DISPLAY OF SALUTES AND JAPANESE NOVELTY SHELLS THAT FAIRLY MAKE IT RAIN STREAMERS, SERPENTS, WHIRLIGIGS, PARACHUTES, SPREADERS, etc., enabling every one in attendance to take home souvenirs of the occasion and at the same time enjoy the privilege of witnessing the grandest and most pleasing exhibition of the Old World's famous manufacturers' specimens of day fireworks.

At 11:30 o'clock a. m. the morning program will close and the grounds will be cleared for the afternoon.

AFTERNOON PROGRAM

Gates open at 12:30.

First—At 2:30 p. m. Jeffries-Johnson fight returns will begin.

Second—Baseball, Ogden vs. Salt Lake—League game for championship of Utah—Begins at 3:30 o'clock.

Admission Fee for Morning

From 8 a. m. to 11 a. m.—Children under 6 years with parents, free. Children under 14 years, 10c. Adults, 25c. Grandstand free from 8 to 11:30 a. m.

ADMISSION FEE FOR AFTERNOON For Jeffries-Johnson returns, including ball game

General admission, 50c; grandstand, 25c. Reserved seats with coupon ticket, 25c extra. Reserved seats can be had at Hemenway and Moser's Cigar Store, Eccles building, until Monday, July 4th, at 12 o'clock noon.

BASE BALL ADMISSION

Those not wishing to hear Jeffries-Johnson returns can enter grounds any time after 3 o'clock at regular baseball prices. Baseball game to begin at 3:30 on July 4th.

NIGHT PROGRAM

The bill for fireworks, to be shot off next Monday evening, July 4th, at 9 o'clock sharp reads as follows:

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--|
| 8—Meteor Batteries. | 12—Meteor Rockets. |
| 8—Niagara Batteries. | 11—Cloud Rockets. |
| 6—Keystone Batteries. | 5—Chain Rockets. |
| 2—Green Fires. | 12—Weeping Willows. |
| 2—Red Fires. | 11—Arc Light Rockets. |
| 1—Silver Cascade Fountain. | 5—Peacock Plume Rockets. |
| 1—Giant String Chinese Mandarins. | 2—Good Night Scenes. |
| 6—Whirlwinds or Umbrellas of Fire. | Two hundred and thirty-five pieces in all. |
| 48—Prismatic Fountains. | |
| 6—Whistling Jacks. | |
| 8—Floral Bomb Shells. | |
| 8—Dragon Nests. | |
| 12—Signal Shells. | |
| 12—Jap Night Shells. | |
| 16—Egyptian Shells. | |
| 1—Flying Flashlight Gondola. | |
| 1—Gigantic Revolving Gondola. | |
| 4—13 1-2 inch 3-shot Bombs. | |
| 4—13 1-2 inch 4-shot Bombs. | |
| 11—Liquid Silver Flyers. | |
| 11—Bomb Shell Rockets. | |

This brief description does not tell how bright, brilliant and grand an illumination the different pieces present. If we were to print the description of the above fireworks as given by the fireworks manufacturers, we would describe such a dazzling and magnificent picture of sparkling and scintillating, fantastic and meteoric flights of fire as to be almost unbelievable. Most people know just about what may be expected of each piece of fireworks, and, as the assortment is one of the best obtainable, all are assured their money's worth.

Evening Admission Fee

Gates Open at 7:30 P. M.

All Children under 12 years 5 cents. All over 12 years 10 cents Grand Stand Extra 15 cents.

The Merry-go-round Will be Operated All Day

Shooting of Fire Crackers in the Center Field of the Race Track allowed all day